"FOSTER IMPERIAL SYSTEM"—RISELEY

Speaking to the members of the board of trade at their regular monthly meeting in the King Edward hotel yesterday afternoon, Henry Riseley, of Bristol, England, chairman of the delegation of Bristol business men who visited Edmonton twelve months ago, urged that steps should be taken to foster an imperial spirit among the people who are coming to Canada by thousands to settle on land in various sections of the country; that the strangers who are flocking through the gates of the Dominion should be taught what British institutions mean in the matter of freedom of action and encouragement to commercial enterprise, and that the advantages of trade with British ports, and more notably Bristol, which is situated nearer to Canada than any other English sea port and is equipped with the most modern shipping facilities, should be looked into carefully by the Canadian people.

Mr. Riseley told of the results by the visit of the twelve Bristol business men last summer. A report of the trip was printed and circulated widely among Bristolians. It told of the influx of American people to Western Canada and pointed out that British business interests in Canada would suffer if representatives of old country manufacturing firms did not set on the ground immediately. It spoke of the opportunities offered for investment in Canadian securities and, as a result of the word of the Bristol business men being given as to the safety of unimproved lands of Canadian cities, an issue of Edmonton books on the old country market was over-subscribed within a very short time after being offered for sale.

Western Canada Labor.
 The report also spoke of the labor troubles of Western Canada, and Mr. Riseley said that the fruits of what was said on this question were evident on the river on which he crossed to Canada. Traveling on the same boat were several hundred British emigrants who had sailed from the port of Bristol. They were none of the very best class from this question were evident on the river on which he crossed to Canada. Traveling on the same boat were several hundred British emigrants who had sailed from the port of Bristol. They were none of the very best class from this question were evident on the river on which he crossed to Canada.

representative of the business population of Bristol as the Edmonton board of trade is of the business population of this city. On their return to England the members of the delegation who were in Edmonton last year pointed out in their report that if the Bristol chamber of commerce had as many members in proportion to the population of the city as the Edmonton board of trade has it would have a membership of 4,000 instead of 500 and instead of an annual income of £1,000 it would have, with each member paying a fee as large as that subscribed by each member of the Edmonton board of trade, an annual income of £10,000.

Mr. Riseley told of the immense expenses that have been undertaken in the construction of the Bristol docks, and suggested that already outgrown the accommodation thus provided for it. He declared that Bristol was in a position to take all the exports that Canada has to offer and in return could supply the Dominion with practically everything its country needs, from a steam engine to a tooth brush.

PARTS OF NEW BOILERS ARE EN ROUTE TO CITY

Lubricating Oil to be Supplied to Tank-Mechanical Stokers for Power Plant Coming.

Lubricating oil for the power plant will probably be supplied to the city of Edmonton in tanks instead of in barrels within the near future. If the investigation Commissioner S. W. Cundy results as it promises to at this time. Through leakage and through other causes it is estimated that the city is losing about 10 cents on the gallon to be saved by purchasing in bulk and a saving of some 10 per cent is expected to be effected by cutting off leakage. The commissioner is to further his investigation and report at some future date.

Parts of Boilers Shipped
 Some of the parts of the new boilers ordered for the power plant have already been shipped by the Babcock and Wilcox boiler people, and a Babcock and Wilcox train is expected to reach the city shortly to begin the work of setting them in place. August through capacity is unnecessary by virtue of the as water pumps ordered and being manufactured at this time, and also by the reason of the addition of the new electrical machine for powerhouses. This is the new ten thousand kilowatt motor generator which has been so much in the limelight in the past.

Mechanical Stokers
 Stokers for facilitating the feeding of the furnaces are likewise ordered and should be coming along very shortly. The secretary of the board of commissioners is to ascertain in just what

Concrete Sidewalk
 This fall a concrete sidewalk is to be constructed on the south side of the city street, if possible, from First to McLeod, but along the city hall, anyway, the secretary of the council board was due this morning instructed to inform the city engineer that the city council is very solicitous that this work be done this fall, and if attention cannot be given it immediately.

EDMONTON POLICEMAN WETASKIWIN CHIEF

Sergeant Daniel Fraser of the Edmonton police department has been appointed chief of police of Wetaskiwin, and today packed his household goods and shaking the Edmonton dust from his gaiters, departed hence to take charge of the sleuths and minions of the law in the elevated city. Mr. Fraser carries the best wishes of the Edmonton department for during his wearing of the uniform here, he was a popular officer with all whom he came in contact, save possibly those who are non-respecters of statutes and bylaws.

CARMEN MAY APPEAL TO TRADES COUNCIL

See No Valid Reason Why Agreement Submitted Should Not be Approved by City Commissioners.

The city bylaw which places all civic employees on a basis of employment at the will of the city, thereby making impossible the clause in the street car employees' agreement is a source of considerable dissatisfaction to the street car employees. It makes impossible, under the present circumstances, one of the most vital clauses in the agreement from the carmen's point of view. If the agreement were signed as it was presented, no motorcar or conductor could be discharged without charges being preferred against him, an investigation held, and eventually a decision from the city commissioners if the man under claim chose to take it to the board.

It is supposed that the carmen will strive to arrange to have this objectionable clause put through if possible. It is likewise reported that they contemplate taking the matter before the trades council of this city.

COAL TRAIN DERAILLED.

GREAT CHANCE TO CLEAN THEM UP

The Bulletin now claims that there is absolutely nothing to the ballot box story and never was; that no ballot boxes with the removable hasp were ever made or ordered, or delivered, or even thought of, and that the conservatives who thought they saw those kind of ballot boxes in the returning officer's office were the victims of an optical illusion. Consequently the Bulletin asks the conservative candidate to apologize to the proprietor of the Bulletin.

Section 36 of the Dominion Elections Act says:

Any person who, before or during any election, for the purpose of affecting the return of any candidate at such election, makes or publishes any false statement of fact in relation to the personal character or conduct of such candidate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and costs and not less than one hundred dollars and costs, or in default of payment of such fine and costs to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years and not less than six months, with or without hard labor.

The proprietor of the Bulletin, who is also minister of the interior and author of that famous trade entitled "Thugs, Liars, Thieves and Blackmailers all" should be able to find the place where this clause fits the case of the conservative candidate. And when he is done with the conservative candidate he might turn it on D. D. McGillivuddy. Great chance to clean them up. Only danger is that what they say is true.

LABOR BUREAUS

AS PROVINCIAL INSTITUTIONS

On a resolution by an Edmonton delegate, Woodward, the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress in convention assembled at Calgary adopted a resolution yesterday calling upon the government to abolish all private employment offices and provide for the establishment instead of labor bureaus as provincial and municipal institutions.

The resolution is one of the justice which is apparent on the face. In Edmonton especially the injustice done the laboring men by the private employment bureaus is well and unfavorably known. Where there is a private personal interest in the discharge of a laborer in order that a place may be made for another who has to pay for the job there is always likely to exist the conditions which a year or more ago were complained of so bitterly on the railway grade to the west. The very fact of a man who is ready and willing to perform honest labor having to pay in advance for the opportunity to work with his hands is abhorrent of itself and a circumstance which makes the employment office undesirable of its own account, to say nothing of the attendant abuses which have accompanied the system of labor offices not only here but in all other parts of the west.

Furthermore, the private employment bureau makes no effort whatever to direct the trend and flow of labor, workmen drifting about haphazard and catching a job wherever they find it open, with the result that there may be, and almost always is, a surplus of labor in one part of the country while there is a scarcity of labor in another. Government employment bureaus would regulate all this and in the direction of harvest help alone would justify the existence of the bureaus.

MUNICIPAL GAS AND NATURAL GAS

The suggestion made by Alderman Dr. McInnis that the city should drill for gas at Toftoid is along common sense lines and a suggestion which might be carried out this winter whether the city undertakes the installation of a gas plant or not.

In corroboration of Alderman McInnis' theory that the Medicine Hat gas formation is found fifty miles east of the city and is the same formation as that in which the Pelican well is located there is plenty of geological testimony and undoubtedly the dominion government would be willing at any time to furnish a geologist to further report. At any rate the possibility of finding gas could easily be tried out before it was time to commence work on the municipal plant next spring.

Just so long as there is a possibility at all of finding gas within piping distance of Edmonton the city could not afford, on any terms whatever, to give its gas franchise away, and for this reason alone the plebiscite on September 26 should be unqualifiedly against paring with the franchise.

THE STAR BLACKMAILER OF THIS DOMINION

At the Morinville meeting yesterday Frank Oliver came right into the open and attacked the Rutherford administration on the Waterways contract on the allegation that there was graft in the disposal of the bonds.

This is a long way from the position Oliver took when in the Thistle ring he called Joe Adair a liar for having stated that he was party to an intrigue to wreck the Rutherford government.

But Oliver's insinuation that members of the Rutherford government profited by the sale of the Waterways bonds is fortunate, as it clears the air. Now Oliver is in the position that he is accusing men who threw their most private affairs open to the most searching investigation of having profited by graft. In this investigation the cleverest lawyers in the country subjected Mr. Rutherford and Mr. Cross to the most critical examination. Private papers and private bank accounts were dissected and held up to the public gaze without even a protest from the gentlemen under examination. Not only did they welcome the examination, but they assisted the examiners by producing these accounts without even a call.

Oliver himself was the man who was behind the whole

Waterways near-scandal and the man who was primarily responsible for the investigation.

His position is now that he accuses of grafting men who have been declared by judges of the supreme court to have been free from the taint of graft.

While he is making this accusation he refuses to explain the $69,350 which was shown to his own credit in the Imperial bank in Edmonton and tells an Edmonton audience that he would sooner go back to driving an ox team than subject his private affairs to examination.

In the light of these circumstances there is little doubt about who is the star blackmailer of this dominion.

Strathcona Liberal Candidate Receives Rousing Reception

J. M. Douglass Makes Strong Appeal for Reciprocity Before
Large Gathering in Strathcona Opera House—
Denounces Manufacturers' Attitude

Strathcona, Sept. 14.—Addressing for the first time since his election to the federal house a political meeting attended by his fellow citizens, J. M. Douglass, Liberal member for the Strathcona constituency, made a splendid appeal for reciprocity to a gathering in the opera house last night that overflowed the seating capacity of the building. The meeting was orderly as Mr. Douglass made efforts of interruption. As the prospective member warned up his address became a fluent and convincing discourse marked by concise reasoning and that the arguments were well based was demonstrated throughout by the hearty and even thunderous applause that came frequently from the audience. The favorable impression created by Mr. Douglass last evening as a speaker is the subject of general comment in the city today and it is felt by local parliamentarians at least that there is good reason for the popularity in the rural districts of the late member and there now appears but little doubt that his return will be made in one of the largest numbers ever seen as a candidate in the constituency.

Hon. A. G. Tupper of this city and Mr. McDonald of Edmonton were speakers assisting Mr. Douglass last night. Mr. Tupper acted in the capacity of chairman.

Dr. Rutherford, who addressed the meeting, dealt mainly with the reciprocity issue and gave him examples and figures to what extent the passing of the agreement will benefit the dominion. He displayed the opposition cry of disloyalty in a few concise and patriotic words. The real issue, he pointed out, is the willingness of the Canadian people to embrace the opportunity to enter a wider market such as will be opened in the United States. He further showed that, despite the present heavy duties the trade of Canada with the U. S. is now more than double that with all other nations combined. He Rutherford traced the history of all parties for years to obtain better relations with the U. S. and explained how the Laurier government has taken a long, slow, and promise so long withheld from Washington that free interchange of products may be had.

In his remarks Mr. Douglass referred to the pleasure it gave him to appear for the first time before his fellow citizens on the political platform. He confessed that while in some ways an election by acclamation, such as he was returned by two years ago upon the death of Dr. McInnis, he considered acceptable the situation had serious drawbacks. Consequently, he welcomed the chance to win an election through a campaign. Without losing time Mr. Douglass threw the cover off the reciprocity question and held up to criticism the arguments of the opponents to the plan. The speaker and interesting facts at his finger's ends and he pictured in no uncertain terms the benefit which would result from the establishment of better trade relations with the United States. Even the Conservatives were clamoring for such an arrangement recently. The opportunity of a great market was offered Canada. No government could be returned by the people if such an opportunity was rejected. He showed plainly why the British market under the present free-trade conditions cannot become the sole outlet for the surplus products of Canada.

After dealing forcefully with the arguments advanced by the opponents through Conservative mediums Mr. Douglass denounced the attitude of the manufacturing class which seeks to hold the people in bondage as much as possible, establishing the highest prices possible for the finished products of the mills and using the lowest feasible prices for the raw materials and products from the farm. "The people will be heard, however," declared the speaker with enthusiasm, "and reciprocity will be carried with a sweeping majority." Prolonged applause.

Loyalty to the Empire, in the opinion of Mr. Douglass, does not rest merely upon the trade of the country in Canada. He knew that the Canadian is a truly patriotic people; every session of the Commons established that fact; therefore, he felt constrained to regard the annexation talk of the opposition as absurd in the extreme. Mail Vote Being Taken by Alberta Amateur Athletic Association Shows Parney to Be Almost Unanimous Choice of Governors—Should Leave On Friday

It is practically decided that Parney will be sent to the Dominion championship sports on September 23. The mail vote being taken by the secretary of the Alberta Amateur Athletic Association has not been completed yet, but it is said that the votes already in are almost unanimous in favor of Fred.

Fred has just got back from a trip to the coast where he did good work in the labor day sports. He is willing to go east to compete for the Dominion championship and try his hardest to win some honor for Alberta.

RYAN VS. MARINO

The Ryan-Marino fight which was scheduled for September 18, will not take place until the 22nd. The place will be the Lyceum Theatre. Mickey Ryan is getting into fine shape and should fight better than he has ever fought in Edmonton before. Marino is said to be rounding into condition and should put up a game scrap. The referee will be chosen the day before the fight and the men will meet at catch weights.

BANQUET TO THE SWIFTS.

R. B. Hunter, of the Swift Canadian company, tendered a banquet to the Swifts football team last night at his residence.

AS SEEN FROM PRESS STAND

Squills and I had the pleasure of talking to one of the old class fighters, Jack Slavin, yesterday. It was a pleasure to talk to him, for, in common with most old class fighters, he is the possessor of a comfortable manner. One isn't talking to these old men of the ring five minutes before he feels that he has a friend—that is he feels so if his entertainer wishes him to do so. Jack Slavin is living in Edmonton and is conducting a school of boxing and gymnastics. There he takes the ambitious young and shows them how to smash each other on the jaw, but seriously, for training purposes, Jack has a fine little place, well fitted up with all the machinery necessary for all the contortions which accompany the process of "getting into shape."

Jack and Squills and I hadn't been talking five minutes before our visitor was reminiscing, telling us about his experiences while conducting a boxing school in Japan. The way he told them was intensely interesting.

The Chinese, says he, will never learn to fight properly. They have not got the slightest conception of how to hit a man. "When you try to box with a Chinkey you don't know but that he may try to crawl between your legs and hit you in the neck of the neck." I tried for a month to put a little idea of how to fight into the Chinese, but they couldn't grasp the idea.

In Japan I fought a white man before the largest crowd of people I ever faced on a platform. He was a real class piece about any boxing school in Tokyo and thought I was a fraud and challenged me. The sports around turned a purse of $2,500. One day before the fight this man, who was a weight fighter who called himself Lucifer, he met me on the street and recognized me. He wanted to withdraw his challenge but I wouldn't let him. Well, we fought before 26,000 people. The scrap was pulled off on the college campus and most of the audience were students or teachers in the college. They were sitting on the roofs of the college building and in trees for several hundred yards around the stage.

"Well, I put him out of business in about two rounds, and the Jap fight fans were disappointed that it did not go longer."

The Japanese did not seem to have any more idea of how to fight than the Chinkeys did, however. I fooled around there for a while, but gave up trying to teach stunt sized people how to use their dukes."

There is one declaration in the National Commission's recent answer to the demands of the American association that has particular interest to the ball player who desires to rise in his chosen profession. It is the reference to that section of the American association petition which asked that in lieu of the present one-man draft regulation the majors should have the right to select from each association club one player at a price of $500.

Such a draft price would be well-nigh prohibitive; it would mean that a player in the American association would have to show extraordinary ability before any major league club would venture to claim him, therefore it would have turned in the Class A league more than one player who might otherwise get a chance to advance. All players cannot achieve the fame of an O'Rourke to merit a major league risk in acquiring them. With the 1-500 draft at $500, drafts from the American association would be few and far between. The American association had that in mind when it asked the fixing of such a figure. It was seeking to keep its players in its own ranks, without much regard for the future of the players who might desire advancement.

The present drafting arrangement works generally to the advantage of the player; no better system, perhaps, could be devised for his advancement. In fact there is but one provision in the present drafting code that hampers his advancement and that happens to be in connection with the concessions already granted Class A. A provision that provides only one player may be drafted from a Class A club. This one-man draft provision now keeps many a capable player in the Class A minors, when, were there no limitations, he might have an opportunity to try his luck in the majors.

That the National Commission, which has ever been careful of the welfare of the players, is sensible to the effect of this provision is indicated in its shrewdly planned use of the drafting regulations as they now exist, for it says in its answer to the Association demands:

"The drafting privilege cannot be abolished without inflicting on the right of a player to advance, and the effect of this privilege has been so far-reaching that it has become necessary to limit the number of players subject to selection from a club in Class A, of which the American association is a member, was in 1906 restricted to one annually."

Many major league club-owners, who approved of this amendment to the National Association, are convinced that this reduction has been so far-reaching that it has become necessary to limit the number of players subject to selection from a club in Class A, of which the American association is a member, was in 1906 restricted to one annually. The purpose of the Association demands and the effect they would have, if granted, upon its opportunities in the profession.

For his situation with a "major league" outside the pale of organized baseball, however, is unnecessary, since the history of professional baseball is an open book.

WOLGAST-McFARLAND FIGHT WAS STOPPED

Governor Morris of Wisconsin Forbids Fight Being Held in That State—May Be Held in Michigan—Crowds Assembled to See Fight Start to Leave

Milwaukee, Sept. 14.—(Special to The Capital).—Instructions have been issued by the state Governor that the Wolgast-McFarland fight scheduled for tomorrow night will not be allowed to take place within the State of Wisconsin. Coming, as it does, at the last minute the forbidding of the bout throws all the calculations of the promoters out of gear.

Efforts are being made to locate a place where the scrap can be held close to the original site. It has been suggested that it be moved over into Michigan, but as there are an enormous number of people in Milwaukee for the express purpose of seeing the fight it would have to be postponed for several days in order to complete the rush to the new scene of the fight.

PRINCE PALATINE IS ROUGH RIDERS OF ST. LEDGER WINNER FAVORITE GETS THIRD PLACE

King William, a Hot Favorite, Finished Third in Famous Race

Doncaster, Eng., Sept. 13.—The hopes of Lord Derby of taking at least the last of the classics today were dashed when his King William could do no better than third in the St. Ledger behind Mr. T. Pilkington's Prince Palatine and J. H. Jock's Lycan, who finished in that order. Despite his disappointing showing in the earlier classic races King William started favorite at six to four, but both the winner and second were well backed at 100 and 20 respectively, giving away twelve pounds Prince Palatine came within a head of winning the biennial at Ascot and finished shortly afterwards he was beaten half a length by Nishomura at New Market. He was regarded as an improving colt and with success out of the way was much fancied by the betting public. He finished confidence of his backers by winning in easy fashion with a margin of six lengths. He is by Persimmon out of Lady Lightfoot F. O'Neill, who was brought over from France for the race. Lycan, who was second, is recorded by Morton as being a better winner and there is little doubt Sam Star would have won the "Triple Crown" could he have stood his position.

The summary: The St. Leger stakes of £5,000 were won for three year olds colts and fillies, one mile six furlongs and 132 yards—Won by: Pilkington's Prince Palatine; 1. B. Jock's Lycan second, and Lord Derby's King William third. Also won: Pictor, Almah, Cherry King, Longford, Beau-padrine and Persimmon.

SOME CLASS.
Montreal, Que., Sept. 13.—Despite the presence of very royalty at the track today the attendance was the smallest of the meeting. The last race of the day was the handicap for three year olds, although there were but three entries. Taino came from behind in the stretch and won from Rich R. by a nose, with Alymer, a half length.

The steeplechase went to St. Abe, who pulled up lame at the finish and would have lost if the race had been twenty yards longer.

MORE TROUBLE.
New York, Sept. 13.—Maule Atter, former bank champion, has been matched with John Dalry, Jersey City bantam, for a ten round scrap before New Orleans A. C. The odds are 2 to 1 in favor of Maule Atter.

Maule Atter is a native of New York, who pulled up lame at the finish and would have lost if the race had been twenty yards longer.

MR. ROBERT McDONALD is now prepared to serve the citizens of Edmonton with the best obtainable food. Cooked by a first-class chef and on the European plan. Meals served a la carte, from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Court will be held in Vancouver today for the first time since the city for Vancouver last evening.

The festival music having arrived, a rehearsal of the First Presbyterian church choir will be held this evening. Every member is requested to attend.

Christ church Sunday school will hold a picnic on Saturday afternoon at Groat's flats, leaving the church at 2 o'clock.

Lieutenant Colonel Belcher of the 19th Alberta Dragoons has returned to the city from England, where he has been spending an extended vacation. He has resumed command of his regiment.

A picture on his travels through southern America given in the First Baptist church last night by Rev. W. O. Bay, was enjoyed by a large audience. The talk was illustrated by a large number of hand-painted views.

Patrons of the city electric power service will have to do without electricity next Sunday from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. because of the wire tower located outside the power house is necessary, and the current must be turned off while these are being made.

The death occurred at Spruce Grove on Monday night of Miss Ella Atkinson after a long illness. Miss Atkinson came west from Warman, Ontario, about five years ago, in search of better health. With other members of the family she lived near Lethbridge for about a year. Four years ago she went to Spruce Grove, Centre and resided there until her death.

Taking flight when their owner had left them beside the post office building on this street, a team of horses attached to a load of earth dashed down the street last evening, ending their mad career at the corner of the intersection of the street and the corner of the street. One of the horses running through the door of the building, it caused damage to the wooden structure of the doorway. The earth with which the wagon was loaded was scattered in all directions in front of the building and some time was required for the removal of the obstruction. The team belonged to Sam Benson, who lives at the corner of Fifth street and Columbia avenue.

FIFTEEN FAMILIES FROM STATE OF IOWA

Will Locate in Edmonton District Within Next Few Weeks—More Coming in Spring

Fifteen families from Des Moines, Iowa, will be located in the Edmonton district within the next few weeks, by J. Thompson, a prominent real estate agent, who came into the city this morning. Mr. Thompson is a guest of the family who came into the city this morning. Mr. Thompson is a guest of the family who came into the city this morning. "All of the members of the party whom I shall bring into the country this fall, and for whom I am acting in the capacity of advance agent are of the family who came into the city this morning. Mr. Thompson is a guest of the family who came into the city this morning. Mr. Thompson is a guest of the family who came into the city this morning.

This morning Mr. Thompson took out fifteen permits. He will return to Des Moines this evening, when he arrives in Edmonton later in the fall he will be accompanied by a party of about forty persons.

Thompson declares that the commission system of city government has been in existence for many years in the people of Des Moines. During the five years in which the commission has been in existence, the general municipal management, the general municipal advancement, and the sound municipal back up of the city has been placed, have so firmly established the commission form of government that it has become an established possibility of revolution.

WOULD WIDEN LANES IN WHOLESALE SECTION

PLANS SUBMITTED MEETING WITH APPROVAL OF PROPERTY OWNERS INTERESTED

Edmonton's wholesale district is to be provided shipping facilities, according to the proposed plan of Alderman H. L. McNeil, which plan is meeting with the approval of practically every one owning property in the wholesale district. Mr. McNeil had passed at the council meeting last evening a motion that the city of Edmonton take the necessary steps to procure ten feet additional on either side of the lanes in blocks 2 to 8 inclusive, on McDougall Avenue to the lane north of Jasper Avenue. This will give 40 feet of lane and permit of the laying of two railway tracks in each lane and leave room for wagon driveway as well.

Exteriorization will be used if necessary. This will guarantee a centralized wholesale district for Edmonton and will facilitate business generally besides solving the spur track question that is ever presenting itself to the city at this time. Mr. McNeil stated last evening that property owners have been pleased with the scheme and that he knew one man who will erect a warehouse immediately upon the affording of these truckage facilities. The motion that was passed last evening is the one of which the doctor says in two weeks ago. It is understood that the doctor has been baffled on all sides since he connected this scheme of serving the wholesale district, not only by Edmonton citizens but by Calgary residents.

BELIEVE CONVICT HAS ENTERED U.S.

LITTLE PROBABILITY OF LAUDON, ESCAPED PRISONER FROM PEN, BEING CAPTURED.

The mounted police have practically given up hope of ever catching Laudon, the convict who escaped from the Edmonton penitentiary some days ago.

The search is still being kept in all the towns and cities in the province. It is believed that he has by this time crossed the border and is as good as safe in the United States.

The police are sure of the opinion that a search in the immediate vicinity of the city was useless and that the same night as he made his getaway, he succeeded in securing a horse or means of transportation and by morning was fully fifty miles distant from the city.

Several reports of suspicious looking characters were received on an adjoining part of the province but upon enquiry they were not the right man.

NECROLOGIC
The death occurred Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, of Mrs. McNelly, Strathcona. The deceased had suffered for years from influenza and pneumonia. She was thirty-nine years old, and leaves a husband and two children.

SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN FUNDS.
The Socialists are meeting with considerable success in raising funds for the conduct of the election campaign.

At the meeting in the Garden Theatre Sunday evening last, over 52 were raised. Last evening the Socialists' union held their regular meeting and voted the sum of $25 towards the expenses of the Socialist election campaign.

Other unions will be expected to make a contribution during the course of the week.

HARVESTING OVER IMPROVED STREET RAILWAY SERVICE

ONLY VERY SMALL PROPORTION OF GRAIN CAUGHT BY THE FROST—SUPERIOR IN NORTH.

"All through the Manitoba, Minn. and Vermilion districts, north of the city, the harvest is over, and the farmers will thresh the heaviest crop they have ever known," said F. P. Smith, agent of the Canadian Pacific railway colonization department to a G.N.R. trainee this morning. Mr. Smith has travelled all through the farming country lying north of the G.N.R. main line during the past few weeks, and declares that he has seen no other locality in the west where the season has been so favorable.

"A very small proportion of the grain was frosted. The damaged grain will, however, amount to an inconsiderable percentage of the whole. The farther north I travelled, the better conditions appeared to be. The crops further from the railway line in fact produced the best grades of wheat, the season having proven more favorable for grain production, and the frosts doing less damage."

Mr. Smith was struck by the rapid improvement in the quality of western stock, which has been effected in the farming settlements along the G.N.R. "The farmers take a just pride in their cattle, and the herds I have seen are superior in many ways to the cattle on the average farm in the west."

Before the presiding judge supreme court chambers at the regular weekly sitting tomorrow, a motion will be made for an order vesting in Christy Robertson, plaintiff, the title to lot 25, in block 8, river lot 14, free from all encumbrances other than the mortgage to the British Columbia Mortgage Company. "It is an interesting case," said the judge, "and will be a pleasure to try." My visit has nothing to do with the department with which I am connected at Ottawa.

ASSISTANT CONTROLLER OF MOUNTED POLICE IN CITY
Mr. L. Forsythe of Ottawa, assistant controller of the mounted police, is a visitor in the city today, a guest at the Edward Hotel. "It is a very interesting case," said the judge, "and will be a pleasure to try." My visit has nothing to do with the department with which I am connected at Ottawa.
